Such negotiations must be conducted within 14 days (all references to "days" in this provision are to calendar days) after such notice is received (the "Negotiation Period"). If the parties fail to meet or if the matter has not been resolved within such Negotiation Period, the parties shall mediate their dispute within 30 days after such Negotiation Period has expired. If the mediation fails to resolve all outstanding disputes between the parties or if the mediation has not been scheduled within 30 days of the end of the applicable Negotiation Period, either party may initiate arbitration with respect to the matters submitted to negotiation and mediation by filing a written demand for arbitration. Such disputes shall be settled by final and binding arbitration administered by the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution in accordance with its arbitration rules ("Rules"). The arbitration will take place at an agreed upon location in the Country in which the order was issued. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent a party is seeking injunctive relief either party may immediately bring a proceeding seeking preliminary injunctive relief in a court having jurisdiction over such matter, and this relief shall remain in effect until the parties reach a resolution or so long as the arbitrator(s) feel as appropriate.

- (b) For disputes under USD $1,000,000, one arbitrator shall either be mutually agreed by the parties or appointed in accordance with the Rules. For disputes over USD $1,000,000, a panel of three arbitrators shall be appointed in accordance with the Rules. Within 30 days following the initiation of an arbitration proceeding, the arbitrator(s) will be selected. No later than 60 days after selection, the arbitrator(s) shall hold a hearing to resolve each of the issues identified by the parties. All arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in the English language. At least 7 days prior to the hearing, each party shall submit the following to the other party and the arbitrator(s):
- (i) A copy of all exhibits on which such party intends to rely in any oral or written presentation to the arbitrator(s);
 - (ii) A list of any witnesses such party intends to call at the hearing, and a short summary of the anticipated testimony of each witness;

The proposed rulings and remedies shall not contain any recitation of the facts or of any legal arguments. The parties agree that neither side shall seek as part of its remedy any punitive damages; and
 - (iv) A brief in support of such party's proposed rulings and remedies, provided the brief shall not exceed 20 pages.
- (c) Within 14 days following completion of the hearing, each party may submit to the other party and the arbitrator(s) a post-hearing brief in support of its proposed rulings and remedies, provided that such brief shall not contain or discuss any new evidence and shall not exceed 10 pages. The arbitrator(s) shall rule on each disputed issue within 21 days following completion of the hearing. Such ruling shall adopt in its entirety the proposed ruling and remedy of one of the parties on each disputed issue and may adopt one party's proposed rulings and remedies on some issues and the other party's proposed rulings and remedies on other issues. The arbitrator(s) shall not adopt any written opinion or otherwise explain the basis of the ruling. If the arbitrator(s) rule in favor of one party on all disputed issues, the losing party shall pay the prevailing party's fees and expenses (including attorney's fees). If the arbitrator(s) rule in favor of one party on some issues and the other party on other issues, the arbitrator(s) shall allocate fees and expenses in a way that bears a reasonable relationship to the ruling. The rulings of the arbitrator(s) and the allocation of fees and expenses shall be binding, non-reviewable and non-appealable, and may be entered as a final judgment in any court having jurisdiction. Except as required by law, the parties agree to keep confidential the existence of the arbitration, the submissions made by the parties (including exhibits, testimony, proposed rulings and briefs) and the decisions made by the arbitrator(s), including its awards.

The parties will not be deemed partners or joint ventures, nor will one party be deemed an agent or employee of the other party. Neither party has any express or implied right to assume or create any obligation on behalf of, or in the name of, the other party or to bind the other party to any contract, agreement or undertaking with any third party, and no conduct of a party shall be deemed to imply such right.
